IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FOURTH APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION TWO

In re BRYANT U., a Person Coming
Under the Juvenile Court Law.

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

BRYANT U.,

Defendant and Appellant.

E032221

(Super.Ct.No. J-176078)

OPINION

APPEAL from the Superior Court of San Bernardino County. Douglas N. Gericke, Judge, and Jerry Walker, Temporary Judge (pursuant to Cal. Const., art. VI, § 21). Affirmed.

Doris S. Browning, under appointment by the Court of Appeal, for Defendant and Appellant.

No appearance for Plaintiff and Respondent.

On June 25, 2002, the San Bernardino County District Attorney filed a subsequent petition pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code sections 602 and 777, subdivision (a)(2), which alleged that “on 6/22/02, the minor . . . left his home without the permission of the probation officer and did not return home by curfew, thereby violating” a term and condition of his grant of probation.

Minor, represented by counsel, admitted the allegations, and on August 13, 2002, following a contested dispositional hearing, the juvenile court ordered that minor be committed to the California Youth Authority after the appropriate findings were made pursuant to various Welfare and Institutions Code sections.

Minor appealed and upon his request, this court appointed counsel to represent him. Counsel has filed a brief under the authority of People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436 and Anders v. California (1967) 386 U.S. 738 [87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493], setting forth a statement of the case, a summary of the facts, and requesting this court to undertake a review of the entire record. We offered the minor an opportunity to file a personal supplemental brief which he has not done.

We have now concluded our independent review of the record and find no arguable issues.

The judgment is affirmed.
